7. 11. [] LIAISON In response to a request, I mailed three Agency publications, entitled "USSR: Some Implications of Demographic Trends for Economic Policies," "USSR: Hard Currency Trade and Payments, 1977-1978," and "USSR: The Impact of Recent Climate Change on Grain Production," to Mary E. Dooley, Senate Judiciary Subcommittee on Internal Security staff.

25X1

12. [] LIAISON Received a call from Barbara Allem, Senate Foreign Relations Committee staff. She asked whether compartmented clearances for Geryld Christianson, on the personal staff of Senator Claiborne Pell (D., R.I.), had been transferred from the State Department to the Agency. I told her that I had covered this situation earlier with Elly Vogtmann, Senate Foreign Relations Committee staff. I explained that Christianson is already aware that his clearances could not be transferred from the State Department and that there is a firm policy against granting compartmented clearances to personal staff members. I suggested that she might want to call Colonel Steve Harrick, OSD, Legislative Affairs, to confirm that the Defense Department holds to this same position.

13. [] LIAISON Called Bill Miller, Staff Director, Senate Select Committee on Intelligence, to discuss several points. I informed him that Mr. Richard A. Sprague, Chief Counsel, House Select Committee on Assassinations, had notified us the Committee was considering interviewing [] and has asked for access to Agency materials on him. Sprague was informed that the Senate Select Committee on Intelligence had already requested and received access to these materials and had previously subpoenaed [] and, therefore, Miller might receive a call from Sprague on this matter.

In response to my question, Miller said he had received one of NSA's new "gold phones" but that it was in his office and not in his home.

I reported to Miller on our meeting with Senator John H. Chafee (R., R.I.) and Senator Malcolm Wallop (R., Wyo.), new Senate Select Committee on Intelligence members, and the fact that follow-up briefings were suggested and the idea accepted by the two Senators. One of the Senators had suggested that they receive these briefings from the staff rather than take up the Agency's time. I told Miller we did not consider this an imposition on our time at all and would welcome the opportunity to brief them. Miller said he would try to arrange for such a briefing.

[] LIAISON Met with Bill Jones, General Counsel, House Government Operations Committee, and John Moore, also on the Committee staff, concerning what they view as a gap in the CIA Retirement Act for supplemental annuity or recomputation when a CIARD annuitant is reemployed by the Federal Government. Discussed were several options, including the establishment of retirement rights under the Civil Service system after five years of reemployed service. I promised to provide further information on the options discussed.

18. [] LIAISON I sat in on a session between John McMahon, AD/DCI/IC, and Jim Fellenbaum, Senate Appropriations Committee staff, as a preview for the 16 March session on the reclama on the IC Staff FY 77 supplemental. Fellenbaum will try for a mark-up immediately following our session on 16 March. He explained why we should not expect support on the official representation allowances, but seemed most supportive of other elements in the reclama following Mr. McMahon's explanation. Fellenbaum particularly questioned the size of the budget group and the need for the IC Staff, as opposed to the DDI, to get into the application of systems analysis to intelligence evaluations.

ADDENDUM TO JOURNAL

OFFICE OF LEGISLATIVE COUNSEL

Monday - 14 March 1977

1. (Unclassified - GLC) LIAISON I met with Chairman Melvin Price (D., Ill.), Chairman, House Armed Services Committee, to discuss the possibilities of a joint or select committee on intelligence in the House of Representatives and to obtain his views on this subject. (See Memorandum for the Record.)

2. (Unclassified - GLC) LIAISON Received a call from Richard Sprague, Counsel, House Select Committee on Assassinations, who said he was interested in looking at any documents which the Agency had concerning [redacted]

[redacted] any contacts he had with Cuban groups or any involvement he had in anti-Castro plots. He mentioned that the Committee had subpoenaed [redacted] and he would like to have access to this information as soon as possible. I told him I would look into it and be back in touch with him. (See Memorandum to the Director this date.)

3. (Unclassified - GLC) LIAISON Following my conversation with Richard Sprague, Counsel, House Select Committee on Assassinations, I called Paul Daley, FBI, and [redacted] OGC, talked with Mike Kelly, Counsel to the Attorney General on FBI matters, about the request from Sprague. The essence of Daley's response was that the Bureau had received a similar request for access to information on Trafficante but that while they were making unclassified material on the Martin Luther King and John F. Kennedy assassinations available to the Committee, they were not responding to the request for the Trafficante material.

4. (Unclassified - GLC) LIAISON Later in the day, I talked with Steve Fallis, House Select Committee on Assassinations staff, to advise him that we were not in a position to provide access to any files on the part of uncleared Select Committee personnel until such time as clearances were obtained and appropriate secrecy agreements were executed. At this point, Richard Sprague, Counsel of the Committee, came on the phone and referred to the fact that Mr. Knoche had made an exception in granting access to classified material regarding the
